PROF.
KAREN TILL

Decolonising Berlin: Memory-Work and Anticolonial Practice in a Wounded City

Karen Till, from Maynooth University in Dublin, is a cultural geographer, feminist scholar, curator, creative writer, and activist who engages in collaborative research about place, memory and creative practice. She is the author of Mapping Spectral Traces (2010) and The New Berlin: Memory, politics, place (2005). Her book in progress, Wounded City, highlights the significance of place-based memory-work and ethical forms of care at multiple scales that may contribute to creating more socially just futures.

Organised by prof. Annaclaudia Martini and
