

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA
DIPARTIMENTO DI STORIA CULTURE CIVILTÀ

EMPIRES IN THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL RECORD

2nd Bologna Seminar on Cross-Cultural Archaeology

Supporting Institutions: Department of History and Cultures, Specialization School on Archaeological Heritage and Phd School in History and Cultures

Monday, 8th February 2016 - Aula Prodi of the Department of History and Cultures, Piazza San Giovanni in Monte 2, Bologna, Italy

Program

h 9.30 - Nicolò Marchetti

Traces of Empires: An Archaeological Perspective from the Ancient Near East

h 10.00 - Pascal Butterlin

Prelude to empire or global culture? The Uruk phenomenon revisited

h 10.30 - Giacomo Benati

Have Empire, Will Travel: The Long-distance Exchange of Consumables in the Late Uruk Period

h 11.00 - Federico Zaina

Transition to Empire in an Urban Context? The Case of Kish from the Early Dynastic to the Akkadian period

h 11.30 - Davide Domenici

The Elusive Empire: Archaeological Evidence for the Political Expansion of Teotihuacan in Classic Mesoamerica

Students are invited

Prof. Nicolò Marchetti
Director of the Specialization School on Archaeological Heritage

Prof. Francesca Sofia
Director of the Department of History and Cultures

Prof. Davide Domenici
Professor of American Archaeology,
Specialization School on Archaeological Heritage