

Late Trials of Perpetrators in the Soviet Union: Between Propaganda, Rule of Law, And Memory

Department of History and Cultures (DiSCI)

University of Bologna

October 24 - 26, 2024

PROGRAM

[proceedings in English except where noted]

Day 1, Thursday 24 Oct., Aula Gambi, Piazza San Giovanni in Monte (1st floor)

13.15 – 13.45 Welcome and Introduction

Vanessa Voisin, Università di Bologna / CERCEC-EHESS Paris

David Alan Rich, Catholic University of America, Washington DC

13.45 – 17.00 Session A

Yoram Gorlizki, University of Manchester: ‘Socialist legality’ after Stalin: ‘law and order’ and the tension between the justice agencies and the police authorities, 1956-1959.

Vanessa Voisin: Trials of Soviet perpetrators after the 1955 amnesty: accountability revisited, publicity increased.

Moderator: David Rich

17.30 – 19.00, Aula Capitani, Piazza San Giovanni in Monte, ground floor

Book presentation (Teams accesso remoto QUI)-- Emilia Koustova [with Alain Blum], Déportés pour l'éternité. Survivre à l'exil stalinien, 1939-1991 (Paris : EHESS-INED, 2024). Organized with Toni Rovatti (Università di Bologna), for ‘900 Storie’ (Istituto Parri Bologna), Moderator: Elena Pirazzoli (Istituto Parri) [in Italian]

Day 2, Friday 25 Oct., Aula Gambi, Piazza San Giovanni in Monte, 2 (1st floor)

09.00 – 13.00 Session B (break ca. 11.00)

Dmytro Myeshkov, Nordost-Institut Lüneburg / Universität Hamburg: Atrocities by and prosecutions of Volksdeutsche Selbstschutz members in Transnistria, post-1955

Jasmin Söhner, Research Center for History and Culture of Germans in Russia, Universität Heidelberg: ZSt Ludwigsburg and Soviet cooperation on German war crimes evidence, 1960-1980

Irina Rebrova, Zentrum für Antisemitismusforschung / Technische Universität Berlin: The story of the mass killing of 214 children with disabilities in Yeysk in 1942 in the trials in the USSR and East Germany in the 1960s.

Moderator: Irina Makhalova, Humboldt Universität zu Berlin

13.00 – 14.00: Lunch break

14.00 – 18.30 Session C (break: ca. 16.00)

Roman Podkur, Institute of History of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine. / Commission for the Rehabilitation of Victims of Political Repressions of the Soviet Period, Kyiv: The Nationalist Turn of Post-Amnesty Persecutions: The Trial in Chervonoarmiisk (1959) [in Russian].

Olena Lysenko, Institute of History, NAN-Ukraine: 'Generations' of investigations and prosecutions: the case of Chernihiv [in Russian]

Irina Tcherneva, Centre national de la recherche scientifique (CNRS) Paris: Trial use of documentary films on war crimes in Soviet Latvia, 1961-1971

Jared McBride, University of California, Los Angeles: Domestic and international messaging: the 1979-80 Dufanets trial in Volyn

Moderator: Anton Weiss-Wendt, Norwegian Center for Holocaust and Minority Studies, Oslo; Antonella Salomoni, Università di Bologna (to be confirmed)

Day 3, Saturday 26 Oct., Aula 1, Piazza Scaravilli, via Zamboni (ground floor)

09.30 – 13.00 Session D

Emilia Koustova, Université de Strasbourg /CERCEC-EHESS Paris: The postwar Lithuanian Sentencing Review Commission: de-Stalinization, case quantification, and the logic of sentence reversal.

David Alan Rich: Inflection point in post-1955 karateli trials: the Trawniki cases, 1960s

Eric Le Bourhis, Institut national des langues et civilisations orientales (INALCO) Paris: Trials of Soviet perpetrators after the 1955 amnesty in the Latvian SSR.

Moderator: Anton Weiss-Wendt

13.15 Concluding remarks and next steps: Vanessa Voisin and David Alan Rich

This event is financed by the Department of History and Cultures, with additional support from University of Manchester, University of California at Los Angeles, Humboldt Universität zu Berlin and Université de Strasbourg